

Instructor: Jensen, Anabel

What are the strengths of this course? : Variety of the activities.
Valuable information taught.

In what ways could the course be improved? : Not so long.

What would you tell a potential student about this course? : Definitely

What are the strengths of this course? :

In what ways could the course be improved? : There was much too much guilt associated with absences

What would you tell a potential student about this course? :

What are the strengths of this course? :

In what ways could the course be improved? :

What would you tell a potential student about this course? :

What are the strengths of this course? :

In what ways could the course be improved? :

What would you tell a potential student about this course? :

What are the strengths of this course? : Teacher is awesome, syllabus is well organized, relevant and insightful material

In what ways could the course be improved? : none

What would you tell a potential student about this course? : take it if you want to be a teacher

What are the strengths of this course? : the course is successful in creating a comfortable group atmosphere and professor Jensen is very knowledgeable and professional.

In what ways could the course be improved? : none.

What would you tell a potential student about this course? : Great course!

What are the strengths of this course? : of lot of good information

In what ways could the course be improved? : no way

What would you tell a potential student about this course? : take it

What are the strengths of this course? : A lot of interaction with other class members. Building of community within classroom. Modeling of concepts by instructor and then change to practice the skills in class. Relevance to personal life as well as future career. Fair and clear feedback on assignments and expectations. Choices in assignments allowed for individual creativity and responsibility for your own learning.

In what ways could the course be improved? : It is great the way it is.

What would you tell a potential student about this course? : That I really enjoyed it!

Instructor: Jensen, Anabel

What are the strengths of this course? :

In what ways could the course be improved? :

What would you tell a potential student about this course? :

What are the strengths of this course? : The knowledge for teaching she has

In what ways could the course be improved? :

What would you tell a potential student about this course? : Take this course, you learn alot before you step into a classroom

What are the strengths of this course? : the rituals and ceremonies and different activities we can take with us for our tool book.

In what ways could the course be improved? : shorter. i think the time is too long.

What would you tell a potential student about this course? : you have to take it so take it, but its long.