

Marilynn Jorgensen, M.A.
Master Trainer/ICF Coach

Marilynn is an accomplished coach, consultant and educator with over 30 years of experience in learning and emotional intelligence. Her work supports transformational change through increased self-awareness, enhanced ability to make powerful choices and the development of a purpose-driven future.

A Master Trainer and Coach for the Six Seconds Emotional Intelligence Network, Marilynn works in business, healthcare, and education to promote effective EQ development programs. Marilynn delivers Six Seconds Certification programs around the globe, and leads the development of Six Seconds' coaching programs.

Marilynn's recent accomplishments include:

- Leading the design & delivery of training and coaching to one of Colombia's top businesses to increase team performance and leadership competence.
- Managing the integration of EQ concepts into the culture of a dynamic philanthropic organization.
- Creating a leadership program for an International network of schools to support self-awareness, mutual respect and a dedication to create a lasting impact with the children, teachers and families that they serve.

Marilynn completed her ICF Coaching Certification with The Hudson Institute. She holds a BA in Education and an MA in Counseling Psychology, and taught at Santa Barbara City College for 11 years. She was a business owner for 25 years and sold her business in 2002 to Bright Horizons Family Solutions. In addition to her work with Six Seconds, Marilynn is the co-owner of a ground-breaking company developing emotional intelligence training tools:

The Emotion Company www.emotioncompany.com

Contact Marilynn at Six Seconds:

Cell: (805) 452-7330

Email: marilynn@6seconds.org

Web: www.6seconds.org

"Marilynn is masterful in asking deep penetrating questions and helps me see what I am not seeing. I aspire to Marilynn's authenticity and her calm presence. Marilynn is most effective in providing me with great tools to better understand emotional intelligence work. I will highly recommend Marilynn to be a trainer or a coach."

- Angie Wong, President,
Credit Card Division, First
Interstate Bank